I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

Eluvieite - The Endless Knot

I have like, 3 albums left to go through besides Strapping Young Lad.
All of Devin's projects.

Maybe 4.

Devin Townsend-Material

This album seems more heavy then some of the other stuff.

My favorite of Devin's work is probably Strapping Young Lad

Alcest - "Sur L'Ocean Couleur De Fer"

One of the most stunningly beautiful and majestic songs I know.

Alcest is also great. My favorite is probably Tir Nan Og

I need to listen to Alcest again.

I might listen to Strapping Young Lad at some point. I think some stuff on his other projects are pretty great. It varies quite a lot but is typically progressive rock/metal.
