"So you have survived the harsh lands of Lowblood? I thought they would have replaced you months ago.

After all I just keep seeing the beasts chewing Aquarian plate at this point. Not to mention that problem you have with the whole land trying to kill you off. It's quite amusing stone, you forget our ability to literally reach out and grab things, I could appear right in front of you, or I could grab a support ship out of space. If one were to perfect the travel of the rifts they may even travel all throughout the universe.

I just don't want anyone fighting this endless battle as I hate to owe people, and me and you are Immortals. Maybe I'll seal you up in some tomb and bury you deep in this planet's crust, or maybe we can strike a deal some day. If you really want to be our neighbors so bad.

Perhaps I'll visit, I hear you have let out an abyssal."-The first king

Oh I was ninjad REALLY HARD. . .Editing. . .

"Ahh Klára, we have been bumping into one another more and more these days.

She runs her nation in a uplifting manner I find her beliefs to be something I would not personally follow, but are definitely fine by my terms.

We like our nation to have freedoms and such. It's a shame we are so twisted at the moment, I never wanted Lowblood to turn to such bloodthirst. Action must be taken, I guess. I truly hope the nation doesn't ever see a fate like ours...

Much like with Shawn of Skyhooked maybe one day we will have a time where I'm a bit more free to relax and I can experience that laid back vibe that she has.

Maybe one day, when my knife isn't two- well now, I'll bid you a farewell. I have a nation to lead as you do as well."-The first king

Get yourself some kind of wiki template, preferably. Then just fill that in with info regarding your leader. You don't strictly have to do that, but it helps with structuring.

When asked whether Kal'shazzar has an opinion, he remarked: "It's a possibility. No really, that's all that we have on 'im! Dude musta been living in the desert for forty years or something!"

Kal'shazzar then kicked one of his potted plants over, releasing spores that would have likely killed all animal life within a seventy mile radius.

Kal's face looks really punchable right now. I wonder if anyone has told him that before. His face just screams "punch me! Make me blue and purple!"

Knock me the fuck out! It just does. Like he probably has gotten into a lot of fights in his youth, because people just get this unknown urge to deck him the fuck out. I won't give him a knuckle sandwich anytime soon, unless, he wants to harm my children...Like so many barbarians do. I must protect them! I am their father after all and must uphold my duties as a loving guardian. Otherwise, yeah, don't worry Kal. Your face is safe and you seem like a genuine person and have achieved much in your life as a scientist and now...uh, an entity like me? But artificially created by those weird one-legged aliens. Yeah, you seem cool and a lot of stuff as a deity that I had no idea of. Hm, what else should I say? I can't think of anything so I'll end with by saying I hope you have a great day and week and I wish you all the best in exploring the secrets of the universe, just like the Great Architect intended.

Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...
- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.

“Mr. Phur'an, you know, I still remember those days when we absolutely hated each others guts but now, we're like best buds! Well, maybe it's a one way relationship.

Hey, you're a decent person and a competent one! What I find most admirable about your rule is the fact that you were malleable enough to shift your national grids source of energy to one that doesn't damage the environment! You know, that might not sound significant but if you were living in my homeland, such a mindset would save you from being haunted and driven to suicide by forest spirits! That's the beautiful part of my homeland! Fossil fuel barons find it difficult to survive over here! I do hope you give such people a hard time in your own homeland.

I honestly have no issues with your political ideology. At the end of the day, any system that upholds your people's dignity and way of life is the correct system. Besides, it's not like you're some supremacist or something. You've always been a decent lad, one that doesn't kowtow to foreign powers and small, powerful interest groups. How can I not commend you?

But anyways, I'm being boring, aren't I? Why don't I talk about you specifically? You seem to joke and curse, in a similar fashion to those drunkards down the street at my favorite bar. I can respect a man that isn't so uptight or formal even when their job requires them to be. Hell, I think you're just my style, Phur'an!”
