I highly recommend this song to any of the post-rock fans out there. It's the best song by these guys I've heard, so far. Still need to listen to a lot of their stuff. It just feels more...original then a lot of post-rock, kind of like how Sleepmakeswaves seems to do a lot more original stuff with their songs, like adding electronic sounds into their songs and such. 65daysofstatic seems to be a post-rock/Drum N Bass band, and it's neat because it's different.

Also, for the post-rock fans, I highly recommend this Icelandic band as well. They have some pretty good songs. Sigur Ros' Facebook page brought me to them, because they liked the band. Heck, in that country, they probably know the band personally.
