They've been on NS for quite some time, and have many posts in F7, so I imagine they are pretty well known! I haven't interacted with them too much, personally, maybe even at all(?) (I apologize if we have, and I've forgotten. I've been away lately due to some things.) - That being said, I think you're a pretty swell member of the forums from what I can see. I hope to see you more often as I slowly get back into Forum things. ☐

They're quite established as a well known user, especially on Forum 7 though that pretty much goes for everyone. On Forum 7, people typically appreciate and enjoy their posts and their unique way and pleasantness tend to make them stick in your memory positively. To me personally, they're especially well known and regarded as a NS friend who I very much enjoy interacting with.

I don't really remember if I've interacted or even seeing them before, but their name feels familiar (or that's because the name "San Andreas" is commonly used). Either way, looking at their founding date, they seem to be new, although they have made quite a few posts already.

Because of that I'd say that they are not exactly well-known, but probably on the way to.

Somewhat well-known internationally as a part of TSP's LCs. Probably well-known in F7, known in passing elsewhere maybe.
