People would look at you strangely, you would be embarrassed in public, maybe a police officer would give you a verbal warning, at most, the police would have the right to confiscate the device and you could only recover it by paying a fine after 24 hours. But nothing more than that.

Drunk homeless people cursed and offended you for real, you got pissed off and physically assaulted them. What's the punishment?

Due to the Confederacies extremely tight gun control the only likely place you can steal a gun from is a law enforcement officer or a member of the armed forces

Either way you will receive up to 25 years and a fine of 15% of your monetary worth.

Not applicable. Rioting, lethal weapons and murder are all legal... and there are no police. Citizens would probably respond to it with more murder and rioting. And then everyone would respawn in the clone-tanks and life would go back to normal the next day like nothing happened.

The police would beat up the pisser and then take him into custody. He could be jailed for up to 2 years and have to do community service, mainly cleaning parks and public restrooms.

The coach of his nation's national team decides to go surfing on a paradise island instead of training the team for an important game. What would be the coach's punishment?

Unauthorized movement outside of the nation's borders is considered treason and will result in life imprisonment or death, with the addition of the loss of citizenship. Unauthorized absence or inappropriate behavior (i.e. not working) during work hours results in loss of one's position and a sentence of 6 months in jail. Ultimately, however, if you manage to leave Sagrea without permission, to try and return is seen as a violation of the state's integrity, which is punishable by death. So this guy is no longer employed, Sagrean, or alive should he return.

No punishment, we are an ancient Eastern society so there is no concept of trans, it would probably be seen as weird if a man tells another man that he will never be a woman, and people might think that the man saying it is mad

≥5 years in prison, as well as a 20-year entry into a "government supervision" list. Any SA offence committed while in this list will lead to ≥25 years in prison as well as entry into a public database of repeat offenders. (No matter what, you'll be punished for ≥5 years plus 20, the difference is where you spend the 20-year supervision: in public, or in prison)
