normal destruction of property law, and the recently passed act-against-terrorism bill.

scaling with the damages done + casualties it will range from 25 years sentence to a death sentence

Some corporations are listed on the strategic business list and any strategic facilities owned by strategic companies damaged will automatically be a life imprisonment

Depends on the drugs you're dealing; weed? Not a crime, psychedelics and mushrooms? minor fine, cocaine or crack? Severe fine, maybe some jail time. Fentanyl or a similarly lethal drug? Can get you the death penalty.

The same as doing any march/parade without authorization. Light fines for participants and community service plus heavy fines for organizers.

As long as its disposed of properly, is not a crime.
If not disposed of properly you will then be adequately fined.

Depends on whether its petty or grand larceny. Both generally result in a fine or some jail time, the scale of which depends on what is stolen and the state.
