You'll probably get man handled pretty hard by the police if they don't shoot you, and probably physically thrown in a cell if you don't get shot.

Theft, swindling, or malicious mischief include family members

The general rule of thumb is to pay back to the victim 2x and to the community 1x the value of what was taken for theft. Fraud will always include incarceration with hard labor (one day hard labor = median wage for determining days of punishment) and a sincere public apology upon release to those harmed. Malicious mischief will add public caning to the punishment (Generally at least 3 blows plus one for every 10 days value of median wage up to 40 strikes). If this is done to family members this material fact will be considered when determining the malice of the perpetrator during sentencing when convicted. If this is done with family members then criminal conspiracy is added the charge and the value of restitution to the community is 2x.

Maliciously swindle someone out of 30 days wages or 600 Scrips (appx. 3,0000 US$) = Fined 1800-2400 Scrips (appx. 9,000 - 12,000 US$), 30 days hard labor, 7 blows with a cane.

Maliciously swindle someone out of a 100,000 Scrip home (appx US$ 500,000) = fined 300,000 - 400,000 Scrips (appx 1.5 million - 2.0 million US$), 167 months (appx. 14 years) hard labor, 40 strikes with a cane.

Those who cannot pay of their debts to their victims or to society may work seven years of hard labor and then declare bankruptcy. The second time 14 years. Third time 21 years. If there is a fourth time the perpetrator is thrown from a helicopter without a parachute into the magma of caldera of the Vistabbe Volcano. Advertisement: Come visit the Vistabbe Volcano, and stay at the Overview Resort. Depends where you got it from. If you killed somebody through first degree murder to get it, you're likely to get up to 15-35 years in prison and for second degree perhaps 10-15, but if through neither then not punishable by the law. However, most Karazis don't quite approve of doing this, and you might find yourself getting some minor socially alienation by the general populace.

First time it's a warning (unless the word was clearly in the context of a joke or something) if it happens again you'll be escorted by security. If you fight them you'll get arrested for assault and disturbing the peace. If you DID have a bomb that's a different story

Depends on the circumstances. Since public protest is legal, one has to be proven to both have caused violence with ones words/actions and it must have been done with the express intent to cause violence.
If, however, both conditions apply, then Prison until parole- with a relatively lower chance of parole at that.
