Going to have to agree here.

Though, a lot of things classified as heavy metal, I really don't see why they are...

And, I know metal that is even lighter than Metallica, as well.

Godflesh-Empyreal

I've listened to hard rock and alt rock that is heavier than Metallica. Metallica is okay, but I've never been a fan. I nearly always prefer Metallica covers over the originals.

As for Metallica being heavy metal, it hardly earns that. By the threshold, perhaps.

Shameful. I didn't know hair metal is heavy.
