Most of the people who joined because Dumil's video have long sense CTE'd and this site suddenly gaining an influx of new users because of something off-site mentioning this game has happened multiple times before Dumil and it'll happen again. It wasn't anything special.

I know like 3 people who joined due to Drew . The only "big" thing that happened due to the Drewpocalypse was that the servers crash.

I'm still not entirely convinced that Drew Dumil even exists tbh.

There's tons and tons of these alleged 'popular' YouTubers with hundreds of thousands or even a million subs and yet not once have I ever heard of anyone ever talking about them in my life.

Like that Dreamguy or whatever. Literally never heard of him in my life and suddenly he has like 30 million subscribers?

I'm not buying it. None of these people are real, everyone is just gaslighting me.

Why would we gaslight you... after all we want the best for you.....

If you're talking about me, that'd be she (or they).

Actual cliché: People using this thread just to complain about users they don't like.

Yeah I'll admit I've done that too with that one certain user who is obsessed with that certain region of England getting independence who also constantly tries to threadjack this thread whenever they appear here. But of course I've long since added them to my ignore list and I'll not understand why y'all argue with them whenever they show up in this thread. They just want attention, so don't give it to them.

I have you on ignore, so I don't really give a shit what you posted but do you just stalk threads looking for anyone who is talking about you? Cause every time someone mentions you either directly or indirectly, you just show up.

It's called "I have posted in the NS Cliches thread before and it shows up in the 'View your posts' tab". I just found it pretty funny that you were talking about me and less than a minute after you post I click on the thread and it's a post about me lol.

Yes, before someone brings up my post history, I'm very guilty of the thing Gandoor's complaining about too. So? Look, I'm not really undermining their point, I'm just saying, you might as well stand by your words if ur gonna say them (or at least consistently stand by most of them)

I mean to be fair I do that entirely because all the whole 'you have to put effort into your posts in F7' thing does is lead to complaining and arguments about 'low-effort' posts even though this is supposed to be the goddamn chill-out board full of forum games.

Have some goddamn fun and stop caring about the level of effort someone puts into a reply to you, you know?

(partially why I now try to mainly post on non-nation orientated and avoid nation or opinion orientated threads)

I've been posting in this subforum long enough to remember how it was before this informal code of conduct that's emerged. In threads like the leader's opinion one all it does is encourage verbose posting! Quantity != quality, as my one-liner posts prove.

i had something like that a while ago. basically, the world got destroyed by a nuclear apocalypse and a crazy hitler-worshipping cult emerged in what used to be germany. they thought the "bolsheviks" and "jews" were actually interstellar galactic empires that ganged up to destroy the nordic-galactic empire (of which hitler was the only survivor) and hitler was chosen by the old gods to become a new god and completely wipe out all traces of the old world with insane god powers to start the world anew. goebbels, himmler, speer, and goebbels were all worshipped as four divine angels of the cardinal directions of the world. eventually the holy order would collapse into violence unseen in european history.

the original premise was "what if those batshit nazi theories were true" but it evolved into something... relatively more reasonable.

Sounds a lot like Burdekin's Swastika Night, which was written just before WW2 and predicted Esoteric Hitlerism before it became an actual thing.
