Life on Mars- David Bowie

Yes I am a beautiful bisexual woman. One that's worth getting to know. I know my self worth and you can't bring me down. I'm a happy pessimist who loves life. I've got a wonderful girlfriend who loves me. Don't tell me I'm wrong, don't say I'm cheap. Don't call me a Dyke, Lezzie, or Gay. Call me that and at least say it to my face. But call me what I am: Beautiful, Gorgeous and Free.

Among the ranks of: Freddie Mercury and David Bowie!

Nice. I have this for my PC. A huge improvement from what I used to have. And I think my dad got them half off. I wouldn't mind getting surround sound for my room at some point, or at least something better for our TV.

I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.
