Scritti Politti - Wood Beez and The Word Girl.

If you saw my playlist you would be forgiven for thinking I was behind, and to be honest the number of bad songs on the internet don't impress me, although I must admit that Adele did make it to my playlist because it was good. Regardless of genre, a good song in my opinion has to invoke a certain mood in me. But the singing talent cannot be cheated simply by using Autotune unless there's a very good reason for it, as the Zenga Zenga song shows. Although I was born in the dying days of the 1980s I associate myself with both the eighties and early nineties because I feel that they are now either awesome or just plain cheesy.

Intelligence Squared debate on whether or not America should reduce its global projection of power.

"...I have been gravely disappointed with the white moderate. I have almost reached the regrettable conclusion that the Negro's great stumbling block in the stride toward freedom is not the White Citizen's Council-er or the Ku Klux Klanner, but the white moderate who is more devoted to "order" than to justice; who prefers a negative peace which is the absence of tension to a positive peace which is the presence of justice; who constantly says "I agree with you in the goal you seek, but I can't agree with your methods of direct action;" who paternalistically feels he can set the timetable for another man's freedom; who lives by the myth of time and who constantly advises the Negro to wait until a "more convenient season." -MLK Jr.
