In this new universe, a man named Stanley works in an office pushing buttons for 10 years. One day, everyone in the office has dissappeared without a trace and a disembodied voice is narrating what he does.

All NS Stats are canon.

Oh, and I guess you can make up anything else about this nation, like geography and such, based on your own imagination. I don't really plan on writing lore on this nation, at least for now.

After murdering the ignorant bastard, Stanley decides to continue his journey. But before that, Stanley brings the big cup named 'Stanley' along with him. The narrator is frustrated by this action for now he needs to specify which Stanley is being referred.

All NS Stats are canon.

The creators of reality decide to prune the rogue demon-god of Ashotu along with the numerous spacetime continuums affected by his rampage once and for all, in order to restore harmony in the already chaotic multiverse, and in one fell swoop, Ashotu, the Ashotu virus and the spacetime continuums that were all but destroyed by the wretched cosmic being, is all but gone from the fabric of reality itself. What has been lost cannot return, and following the pruning of Ashotu, the multiverse stays in relative peace.

New Granger.

And yet, the odds quickly turn in the favor of [Arpasia user] and the creators of reality. For Ashotu is nothing more but egoist, loud, insolent, undisciplined and insignificant by this point.

The planet with Zimbar Island gets teleported into the new universe. Even though Dread got the virus, it is easily cured.

However, along with this, [Ashotu user] also arrives, and is eliminated from multiple universes by Aila in her "limitless" state.

Meanwhile, on the other planet, Granger wakes up after another 4 hours, during which the train has traveled 1750 km.

However, the two worlds are on a collision course, with the impact date set to 80,705,142,850 years from now.

Granger doesn't understand kilometers and gets out a pocket calculator to work out the distance he has travelled in miles.

This nation reflects some of my RL views, but with everything taken to the extreme.

Original survives, and knowing another reality warper could destroy his plans on getting revenge, he erases her from existence from all universes

The orade sees aila in the void and tells her a prophecy "The king shall rise or rise when a hero makes a decision, A comrade shall rise or fall, and the universe will die or rise" and teleports her back, though dread has the infection again.
