Owen becomes president

All NS Stats are canon.

Oh, and I guess you can make up anything else about this nation, like geography and such, based on your own imagination. I don't really plan on writing lore on this nation, at least for now.

But Owen recognizes it's importance, and does not entertain the idea of doing so.

Owen develops a chlorophyll nuke, which helps plants grow. In testing it, he brings Garden back from the dead.

Owen, without realizing the consequences that have come with burning the C204 TDU, begins noticing that time is going faster than it should have otherwise been.

A few hundred Nazis from late 1940 arrive in their time machines, which created temporal distortions around them. They somehow add artificial "souls" harvested from their dead soldiers to Garden, and turn him into a massive eldritch abomination with a high resolution screen (à la Photoshop Flowey, of course) that wreaks havoc within civilization and on life in general. However, Owen is convinced that Garden's true mentality is still there inside it.

Random Nazi: Scheisse! What have you done with the C204? That doesn't matter, you've proven yourself unworthy of the title Aryan, so die!

Owen sees the outside world fade out around him, and he ends up in a complete void, with only a chainsaw and a rifle with him. However, he doesn't die, and notices a burning, determined feeling inside of him. He shoots the rifle several times, but it does no damage.

Mina Sezlet: Here, this should help. *random supplies appear*

Aila: *fires an etherized shot at Endlösungsgarten, doing 1 damage*

We need to rescue the souls and remove the Nazism from them.

Before they were Nazified they were valiant and honorable soldiers.

Hacune Miku et al.: *cue Your Best Nightmare*

28 souls remaining.

Several minutes pass by, with Owen getting impaled by vines once for 14334 damage, and again for 5734. (It's 60% of his current HP, and he only dies if he gets hit with his HP at 1.)

Owen: Screw this, if I die anyway at least... Aila and Mina will do something...

Owen touches a random mikan symbol, which heals him for 12041 HP.

Owen: HP 15863/23890

Soon, a □□ appears separated from Endlösungsgarten. The void fills with landmines, which leave Owen at 1 HP upon explosion; until he touches the □□, gaining back all his HP from virtual medkits and freeing one of the souls.

Aila: As expected, as you free more of the souls, Endlösungsgarten will weaken, and eventually you are able to harm it.

Endlösungsgarten

HP: 151497499/151497500

DEF: 19683 (27 souls remaining)

While Owen still wanted to save his friend Garden, a mysterious portal appeared from nowhere. Who came through that portal was nothing but Owen himself from another worldline with 0.001 convergence factor (which will be called OWEN), wielding a hyper-enhanced weapon integrated to C204 Time Displacement unit. He shouted "If you want this, come and get it!" and aims at the heart of Endlösunggarten, wiping him from the face of the earth.

Owen from the current worldline, with bunch of tears falling from his eyes, said "You killed him! You killed Garden!"

OWEN: "You can't believe how many other worldlines there are in which he died in. Even if I didn't kill him, he would die anyway."

Owen: "But there must have been another way!"

OWEN: "There are many Owens in the multiverse who suffered from the death of a Garden. Yet you are only one of them. Suffer, and grow stronger, Owen."

Then OWEN points the weapon to Owen's head, shoots him which causes Owen to fall unconscious.

OWEN then invites the Nazis to his own worldline. "If you want the C204, come and try to get it in my own world, don't get others involved in it."

A portal appears and takes OWEN and Nazis to a vast desert.

OWEN turns on the Nazis and, at an insane speed, whips out a sword and slices the Nazis in half. Suddenly, Owen descends from the heavens with an AK. Behind him follows Garden, who Owen found and revived again. The two of them circle OWEN, not letting him out of their sights. OWEN chuckles. "Foolish mortals," he spits. "Your silly ring can't stop me."

However, as soon as he says this, all the Men of past ages descend and join into the encirclement, each with various weapons. OWEN looks around, now noticeably worried. He tries to back up, only to bump into the 83rd iteration, carrying a sheathed katana. 83 unsheathes his katana, as do all of the iterations with swords and daggers. OWEN backs into the center, and all chaos breaks loose.

OWEN knows they will not survive for long, so, as Owen strikes the killing blow, they turn into a nuke, obliterating all Men of the past. The only survivor was Garden, who was at 1 HP and escaped to their home timeline to regen.

Owen stands up but his legs immediately break. As he falls, he trips down the stairs and his spinal cord breaks. As he dies, he sees a way to come back. He will remember this and keep it at heart.

Connor is an alien living on the planet Terrans call Čmáfu!êziłnké|urímà, 150 light years from Earth. He manages a SETI-like program and sends a signal through it towards Earth.

When Oscar received the signal, Connor was about 180 years old, which corresponds to 90 in human age and he was diagnosed with Remi-zhlae which is an illness that makes Čmáfu!êzînké|urímà-ians forget certain things by age.

Due to the overwhelmingly confusing turn of events in the Connor-Fartass Space Continuum, the gods have decided that pruning the aforementioned spacetime continuum would be necessary in order to restore peace and avoid further chaos in the already chaotic universe of the Man thread, the pruning of the spacetime continuum was quick and sudden.
