He said Burma, not Hawaii/costa rica. Besides, she's brsh

Also

Allan R. Challenger

So no Grant?

They said the tourist was Burmese, not that they were in Burma. And InGen is an American-based company after all, so it would make sense for the "[REDACTED] Department" to look into the shenanigans going down in regards to Isla Soma.

Also, in case you're wondering why, I decided to opt for Challenger instead of Grant so it could serve as an homage to the original The Lost World by Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, which features a character named 'Professor Challenger' as one of the main characters. I just thought it'd be more unique instead of reusing 'Grant'.

No need. Teahupo'o is probably one of the heaviest breaks in the world, at its largest it gets to 25 feet or more when the XXL swells move in. It's very dangerous because it's a massive wall of water that crashes straight into an extremely shallow reef.

“All my homies hate Indiana!”

Mind explaining me as to why they have a personal vendetta against the state?
I mean, Indiana seems quite chill, their people seem quite welcoming, it's a pretty normal state. I personally don't have anything against them.
