The Flag of Teienshi stands for many things: The blue represents maritime heritage, and its fundamental belief in liberty and democracy, the white represents harmony and a desire for peace and prosperity among its people, while mitsudomoe, a symbol largely associated with the maritime city-state, stands for the three islands making the city and its British-Japanese roots.

What I found out: That England voluntarily (Somehow) joined Sweden, and their leader's cap also has moustache on it, their army has a thing, called as "Gulag gun", and their leader's signature is pepe the frog, for some reason. (Tbh, it kind of raises me some red flags about your political views)

The extent of the Silver Commonwealth's control over the world is amazing. You know about the Sentinelese islands? Where people stuck 10000 years (or more) in the past live? Well, the SC conquered it, and it hosts a small portion of the SC's indochinese troops. What?!

What the heck? Did the freemasons achieve finally the melting of the dearest and delicious ice of our poles? Freaking New World Order I knew that someday they would achieve it to use climate change as an excuse for world domination. By the way Marquisal is still a life but now with no Sweden to be ruled by all of this has no meaning. You won, globalist elite, you have destroyed the Sweedish Empire what means that the main opposition to your ideals has fallen unto the abysm of the freemasons... What a sad day... Also, I am surprised on how squid humanoids have taken power in that world, maybe reptilians were not a that stupid concept at all as I has always thought, I must have had more precautions, and suspicion when I saw those weird squids looking at me with anger in the aquarium, but I never thought that they would be preparing their revenge upon humans for damaging our planet, now their race is the only important in the planet, ruled by squids and things related to them, even religion.

I admit that my writing focused on my reaction, but I red the two FactBooks, don't worry I'll include more facts and less reactions.

Old Teiensi is a neighborhood full of historic buildings in the center of the city. It is the political and financial center of Teiensi as well, for it contains the Prime Minister's residence, the Parliament and Supreme Court buildings, the Teiensi Stock Exchange, and the headquarters of most of the city's corporations.

Well, not quite. The United Nations of Aphrodia is a supra-national organization that has its purpose in being an international center of nations to meet and to pass laws to benefit all nations, and to ensure peace ~~whatever the cost~~. It's not a world government. Think the IRL UN, but if it actually did something.

Considering the lack of hard-right or hard-left parties in their political sphere, they're a pretty moderate country politically.

Humanity's actions led to its downfall, which allowed the emergence of the Inklings as new dominate race on Earth. To form their own nations and politician beliefs, which got them to form a UN-like organization to maintain peace between these squid-like humanoids to presently rise as a space-faring civilization.

Rapture City

- In the underwater city, two roles have emerged from the City's ongoing civil war: the City Monitors who defend the peace and the Red Caps who fight against unjust systems. The city's infrastructure is crumbling under its own weight and kinship is snuffed by the paranoia of totalitarianism. Yet the people would be in for a surprise as their virtual overlord have died many years ago as the oppression continues under his name...
- Not an 1-1 exact replica of Bioshock lore and Rapture City. Only the city's atmosphere and setting is maintained.
