Given she's from the 19th century and FPTP is the only voting method she knows (not to mention Sophia isn't even allowed to vote pre-suffrage), it's perfectly IC for her to only give two preferences.
Not to mention, asking people to choose three parties is ridiculous.

Lady Sophia. While Omiya's reason for studying economics is more sound, "I hate my mom" can hardly be beat.

If men were angels, no government would be necessary. If angels were to govern men, neither external nor internal controls on government would be necessary. In framing a government which is to be administered by men over men, the great difficulty lies in this: you must first enable the government to control the governed; and the next place, oblige it to control itself.
