No different than assault on any one else. 1 month wages fine to be paid off in installments over the course of a year to 6 months hard labor, unless ruled a customary political protest (whip cream pie in the face).

Giving the same product a fancier name so it can be sold at doubled, triple, or even quadruple the price? E.g., changing the name of crescent rolls to croissants, frozen milk or milk solids products as ice cream, or goat meat as "carne di capra"?
