Their language is the product of linguistic syncretizations between Catalan and approximately 13th century English, yielding a unique, hybrid language.

One of the rare moments they honour enemies is with the Nova Oil Fields, the site of their largest battle ever where 2 million of their own forces were wiped out

That Aroni is a dictatorship under which prebendalism and corruption are common. There are frequent "disappearances" amongst their youth (although given their government I can imagine what that actually means), and the average life expectancy for Aronians is just 61.4 years.

like financial credit...like a loan.
If the European doesn't have money on them they aren't going to receive an extension of credit or something.
so to put it simply we don't take foreign credit cards.
I mean seriously that ones not even about Anti European-ness, based on their passed actions why should we trust them to pay their bills? 🤔

After winning the civil war and taking charge, the National Heart Party began a campaign of cultural purification, burning down stores with loanwords in their names as well as various books for the sake of eliminating foreign influence. Embassies had to be explicitly protected for the sake of not drawing the ire of foreign countries.

Due to the fact that most of the world is occupied by superstates which were created out of the need of smaller countries to band together to avoid being ganged upon, the ideals of national sovereignty and identity have weakened considerably, to the point it's safe to say they're almost gone.

This tells me that there is a party, historically associated with forming militias in rebellion, representing a big chunk of the opposition today without any repercussions. There is also another party which historically supported terrorism, also sitting without any repercussions.
