Eminem is transphobic and homophobic. Varv is a church-burning xenophobe. Fuck both of ya'll. I like your music so I'll listen to it but I won't like you. I do wish Eminem could at least try not be so transphobic and homophobic.

I've been having a debate with myself on this issue. I like "Rap God" but I cringe at the homophobic parts...kind of hard to listen to it.

When a friend pestered me about how and why I can enjoy NSMB, they were telling me Eminem stopped being a transphobe/homophobe. I said yeah, he apologized for it once, that's it. That is what musicians do when they want to continue getting money. Then Rap God comes up, and "Thanks, Eminem, for confirming you've been a douchey homophobic transphobe all along."

I would have been able to like Rap God. It was a good song until I got to the part of Eminem's usual homophobia. I can't go through that. I can tolerate listening to NSBM because I can't really give a fuck about Hitler if the music is good, but when it comes to songs like Rap God and the homophobia in it, I stop the song, because I listen to music to get away from that.

Also, Burzum, be the murderous church-burning asshole he may be, has never included his personal beliefs into his songs like Eminem does. Now with Eminem's new homophobic songs after his fake apology for songs like that before it, I like him less and less.

Yeah, that's understandable.

These guys (people like Eminem) need to realize that this shit doesn't sell, it just makes them look like jackasses, smh.

To me, the difference between Varg and Eminem is that I don't care how much of an asshole Varg is because he never adds it into his music, while Eminem does. So despite Eminem being a homophobic transphobe, and Varg being one step short of a neo-Nazi, because he doesn't include any of this bigoted beliefs in his music, I can enjoy his music (disclaimer: Varg is not a neo-Nazi and his music is not NSBM).

But I'm really getting so tired of Eminem's homophobia. I don't want to feel like I'm being insulted and attacked by his songs I want to enjoy.
