Spain tried to turn the Neko society more patriarchal during it's conquest of the islands, but failed. Neko culture is largely gynocentric, with females being regarded as the default gender.

Partially inspired by the Third Odyssey mod for EU4, this nation is essentially a Byzantine successor state in South America that has fused together Ancient Greek Religion with Greek Orthodox Christianity. It mixes the aesthetic of Byzantium and Ancient Greece, with very open and liberal social values but with an Imperial Monarchy. NS stats are referenced but are not strictly followed to a T.

To answer your question, the former. While he's not against people excluding animal derived foods from their diets (although he views it as unnecessary), he is against forcing veganism on others and harassing non vegans as well as forcing vegan diets on those are can't biologically handle it such as babies and certain animals. I Came up with this after witnessing such behavior from the online vegan community.
