One of them was 0:06 long. All the ones I posted together were under 2 minutes and some under a minute.

For a soundtrack though, short is expected.

But was it a good six seconds song? That is the question.

The shortest song on this 20-song soundtrack is 1:40, so this album has a lot of fairly long songs. Or normal length songs anyway.

Assassins Creed: Brotherhood Soundtrack-Jesper Kyd-City of Rome

One of my all-time favorite soundtrack songs. I know a few songs I like a lot from this soundtrack but never listened to the soundtrack fully....or played this game yet.

One does not simply listen to good songs once.....Okay, yes they do, but I can never listen to City of Rome once.

The best songs are the ones you can't stop repeating.

I'm still searching for soul destroying metal to appease me. I'll keep going through black metal bands to find it.

Another favorite from the soundtrack.

"The composer said that he actually got a bunch of renaissance flags in a room and flapped them around, that's what's making the flapping sound."

That's an interesting way to get a genuine flag sound.
