No, actually. I just know that an apple probably couldn't bring back humanity by itself.

Or do you mean the earthworm? That's a stereotype about apples sometimes. Don't know where it comes from.

They said it was from a snake, which is the Adam & Eve thing. They ate it and got banned from Eden. Which is probably what they meant by it altering humanity so much that it probably wouldn't exist as we know it. That is, if that bs was real anyway.

I meant "your sudden lack of functional kneecaps" as in the kneecaps being broken as a result of the extortion.

How is that possible? A monetary-related action leading to physical damage?

one definition of extort is "to wrest or wring (money, information, etc.) from a person by violence, intimidation, or abuse of authority; obtain by force, torture, threat, or the like." Threatening to break the kneecaps of someone who refuses to pay would be extortion.
