I need to start rating the albums I listen to.
Now I'll be up all night making the list...

I'll start with this one, since I never made a solid opinion on it.

RateYourMusic.com is a great website for that, plus it's one of the best and most diverse music communities on the web. Just a tip.

It's a good site, though not really for me.

Thanks for the tip though. ☐

Glad I listened to this again. I already liked her album, but it sounds even better now for some reason.

I tried to use that site but it kinda died because I never bothered to open up my browser and then choose the site, when I can just open up my text file where I have all the albums. And with text file I can use more exact scores because I like 0-100 instead of 0-5/0-10. That way I can give 88-92 without rounding it up/down to 90 (4.5/5). EDIT: And I never really cared for communities anyways.

Death metal band doing a Pink Floyd-esque ballad. Surprisingly beautiful and very well-done.

Jesu, which is pretty much sludge metal, does a cover of a Pink Floyd song and The Cure song. Both pretty interesting.

Not sure that song is the greatest for defining the genre, but yeah. They're pretty varied.

Hmm...Looking at this, trip hop was a big thing from Bristol in the 90's.

Massive Attack-Mezzanine

Gonna rate it an 8. Also up'd Fever Ray from 8 to an 8.3. I rated Iamamiwhoami's Bounty an 8.5 and I'm having a hard time having it be more good than Fever Ray's album ☐

I'm so gonna adjust a lot of these to even sillier lengths because I found something feels a little better than something I rated higher or whatever ☐

Efterklang-Hollow Mountain

Re-listening to their 2 indie pop albums to get my final opinion on them.

These guys are a good example that pop music doesn't need to be upbeat.

I had this dilemma earlier.

It was mainly a conflict of whether I should rate based on what was actually better vs. what I actually enjoy listening to. For example, I gave Lorde's Pure Heroine a 7.4, but Justin Bieber's Journals a 7.6... Feeling greatly disturbed by this, I decided to rate based on enjoyability, and I enjoy Journals more than Pure Heroine (good god what's happened to me...) even though I think Pure Heroine was better musically ...

And it still doesn't make sense, but eh.

Future - Honest

Another confusing dilemma; how you can listen to and enjoy several songs from an artist you can't stand...

Same here, I ended up having 7 albums I need to re-listen to, and I want to get at least one out of the way before I go to bed. But I rated 66, so only 7 out of 73 is pretty damn good I'd say.
