I'm currently in the Yucatán, so if it snows here, something is very, VERY wrong.

I need to check out Dexter. There's a lot of well-recieved shows {doesn't technically mean anything, Modern Family looks terrible in my opinion} I need to look into.

Wouldn't really put it past it for somewhere completely bizarre getting snow one of these winters. One year, Sacramento (Where I was born), California got snow in mid November, before we got snow up here. We rarely get snow before Christmas, and Sacramento gets snow like, every 5 to 10 years....in winter, not fall.

I like, hardly watch TV anymore.

I was born in Mesa, Arizona, and it can get into the 90s (F) during the winter, so yeah.

We don't even pay for TV anymore. We haven't really had TV for years. Our TV just has a PS3 and Wii U hooked up to it right now. Do I miss it sometime? Yeah. Do I care overall? No. I like to watch stuff, but there's Netflix and such. Though, Netflix lacks sooo much I want to see. These movie studios and whatnot really need to get into the game, because we are in the age of internet streaming. If they keep making it where their movies aren't streamable, and such, then their movies will never get recognized at all at this point. There's like, 10 movies I want to see, but I can't because they aren't on streaming. And I refuse to watch stuff illegally.

Totally music related.

Your birthtown:) I'm not a fan of anything in the 90 degrees ever. But I'm guessing that has to do with living in South Lake Tahoe (it did get hot in summer) a big chunk of my life, where it got cold....then moving to Maine, and now here, where it's like 55 degrees average all winter.....though it seems to be barely 45 lately.

Where I currently live the weather goes all over the place (upper 90s to 10 below)

A bunch of tracks from Altered States of America by Agroaphobic Nosebleed. 100 songs, only 22 minutes long.

It's grindcore. It is pretty interesting but you probably won't like it. Grindcore artists are known for short songs *ahem You Suffer*

Apparet-Black Water

Sometimes shows can be useful for songs, though this song sounded different in the show and I thought it was going to be something else.

I discovered a love for Massive Attack (and the whole trip-hop genre) after hearing "Dissolved Girl" in the scene in the Matrix where Neo's asleep at his computer, right before Trinity wakes him. Those films also gave me an appreciation for Juno Reactor and Don Davis :p

Still listening to BBC. Will listen to Porcupine Tree eventually :p

I only know this song by Apparet, but I just added their playlist to remind myself to look through their discography. I think I've found more good songs (Soundtrack-wise and not) in games. I need to listen to more Massive Attack as well. I actually feel like listening to them now.

I only saw the first Matrix movie. I heard the other ones turned too much into just being overly ridiculous action movies, which I'm not really a fan of. Not that the first wasn't like that, either, but yeah.

I agree! Can't get ANATO out of my head, but as an album Queen II had something about it that made it wonderful and better than ANATO in ways (especially liked the songs flowing into each other. That's in ANATO too, but not as prominently)

Modern Family is actually really good imo.
