Their song titled "The Sun Rains When You're Not Looking" is pretty good, and their longest. I need to listen to more of them. My nerd side of me loves that they have an album named "OMGWTFBBQ".

You found the never ending good part of YouTube, didn't you? I have a playlist for those guys on YouTube, but I need to listen to them more. They aren't on Spotify, so it takes more time to go through their stuff.

There's seriously just a part of YouTube that has a bunch of suggestions, and you are like "WHERE TO START?!", because they all seem to be freaking good (I've found some more Post-Rock on the meh side, though. Brings nothing inventive to the table). And I see people talk about it in the comments all the time.
