Their national anthem is the song 'Terra Nova' from Civilization 5 Brave New World. I would recognize those lyrics anywhere, and the song plays in my head as I read it.

The Germanian Empire ✦ "Das Reich uber Alles!"

Factbooks | Music | Tech Level: PT/FanT | Current Year: 1940 AE

An ancient empire in the heart of Europa, born and forged in the fires of war, headed by an embittered Kaiserin and her ambitious generals. Surrounded on all sides by invaders and saboteurs, and having emerged victorious but scarred from a war to end all wars, the Fatherland stands on guard.

Set to go through a major rework. Timeskip, new factbooks, and map update included.

There was at least one recorded case where following a partisan revolt in the city of Arraigne led to artillery bombardment by the Imperial Army, murdering thousands of citizens and wiping the city off the map.

(I wonder what the IRL equivalent to that town is. I mean, similar situations probably occured in Belgium irl, but Vadterland seems to be an Austria-united Germany rather than a Prussia united one)

They have managed to establish an Anarchist system of governance over some 73 million people, which is an impressive feat in and of itself -only made more impressive when you take into account there are non-anarchist states around them that haven't eradicated them yet.

The Guelder (F), officially Guelder Schild, is one of the main currencies in the Erstwelt. It is the national currency of the Frievolker Empire, The Dutch Empire, The Piedmont, and Federated Syria, and is used as the main currency of New Libertia, the Cascadian Commune, The State of Israel, and the Allied Republic of Iran along side their own currencies (respectively Libertalian Dollar, Communal Worker's Ticket, New Sheckel, and Iranian Parse).

The Empire of Gudmund is a world-spanning empire, but in a turn of realism they do not have direct control over all territory on their planet. The Empire proper is a conglomeration of nations and assorted peoples under the rule of the Emperor, and through globalization and economic influence all the other remaining countries in their world not directly a part of the Empire kowtow to it as a result of Gudmund's technological and military superiority.

They speak three languages: imperial, Nordic, and a third one I can't remember m. They are also a federated semi-constitutional monarchy, and capitalist-pigs believers of the market. In 1900, they fought a war. It seems to be an alternate Europe. They control what would today be Germany, Denmark, and a bunch of other Eastern European nations.

That apparently unlike the USSR, they don't have a planned economy, and their structure is way more communal. Also, it seems, that corporations don't really like Angria, although investment from foreign powers is allowed. (Strictly kept on watch, however)

AN: Most of their cuisine seems to consist from fishes, with a good mix of fruits. They seem to be pretty liberal, and religious at the same time as well.
