Not a crime ☐

Anyone attempting to start, continue or contribute to the Great Feyris Proletarian Cultural Revolution will never be punished, but instead will be encouraged and will be helped more! All proletarians in Feyrisshire are urged to continue the revolution and to bombard the bourgeoisie in the headquarters! Everyone who wishes to spread the revolution will be given help!

As Mao Zedong said: "It is right to rebel!"

Quickly executed by tank firing or getting to be a target if there's a nuclear testing. We dont want the civil war of the 4th era to ever happened again. The perpetrators must leave no physical evidence of themselves so that others will not remember them and their silly attempt

Typically that would be considered terrorism or intent to commit terrorism, which carries the death penalty. This can range from hanging or firing squad but hangings are more common.

I mean, ultimately, it'd be up to the nobleman you hit to decide that. Usually, the punishment is that both you and your horse would be executed. Your horse would be executed first and be given to you as your last meal. And finally, you would be hung in public.

Legalish. Personally owning a slave is illegal. But state owned yes. It is made as a reparation to the war and they must do hard labor with no pay. State slavery is only to the war criminals, slave owners. Maximum years will be 30. But hey, its better than getting executed.

Open carry would get you apprehended and put under investigation if you're not authorized security. If deemed guilty of illicit intent then you'd be sentenced for treason— which is a minimum 15 year sentence.
