Constitutional presidential federal republic with significant corruption and democratic deficits

But “a post apocalyptic narco monarchist state created by drug cartels” is probably an accurate description of a few states.

Central American presidential social democratic republic.

Just think of a Third Mexican Empire installed by the cartels in the wake of a major catastrophe that has forced the collapse of most national governments and the global economy.

Was responding to El Lazaro, who was the above nation.

I, for one, welcome our future Mexican drug overlords.
