No legal ramifications (as long as you're doing it in a safe firepit on your property, and the flag is yours and not someone else's), but it will certainly get people angry with you.

NINJA'd

Legal ramifications would only be pushed on those that put out snuff films that do not include the consent of the power of attorney of the individual that was murdered.

Detonating a small explosive in the center of a rural road, injuring and placing nobody in danger.

Depends on whether it's paved or not, if it's paved it's a fine of 5,000. If not you just have to make sure the hole is filled in 3 days by any means.

Discretion of judge or officer. Usually let off with warning or low fine (50 FM). Should it have endangered the lives of others, such as in a busy area or if someone was crossing, could be 1 month in local detention or a fine of 5,000 FM. If it caused death or injury, counted as vehicular assault or manslaughter, sentence of 6 to 12 months and 10-15 years respectively.

If not behaving in a lewd fashion (i.e. making sexual remarks, any provocative jiggling directed at another individual), the person would likely receive a Public Safety Bureau warning for the first two offences, and 5 days in Rehabilitation Through Labour for each offence thereafter.

Free Jeililand is a strong, patriotic society of settlers exiled from a failed state that didn't respect the citizen's right to refuse to participate in a chaotic, uncontrolled, and vile society.

That's why the federal police force control everything instead of the government. How orderly and well kept!

It depends, the Department for Economic Strengthening (DES) of the Commonwealth the individual ends up in as well as the Federal DES do a dual evaluation of the individual, including of time already spent in Scytharum as well as potential and real economic contributions to Scytharum's economy.

- If the individual is able to economically contribute to Scytharum by the Commonwealth DES Evaluation, regardless of the Federal DES Evaluation results, they are given a sort of amnesty while they are put through the legal process to obtain citizenship specifically while staying in that Commonwealth, though after obtaining citizenship they may move where they please.

- If the individual is able to economically contribute to Scytharum by the Federal DES Evaluation and not the Commonwealth one, they will likely be moved to the Commonwealth that the Federal DES Evaluation indicates they are most suited for, though after obtaining citizenship they may move where they please.

- If the individual cannot currently contribute, they will be likely either sent to a privately-funded trade education facility, which operate in order to instruct the homeless as well as these individuals in marketable skills to get them back on their feet, that is if they're innocent, or they will be deported if criminal activity deemed serious enough is discovered.

In short, if the individual can contribute to the UCS's economy, they're taken through getting citizenship, if they can't and are innocent they are taken to a privately-funded Trade Education Facility to learn marketable skills if possible, and if they have a criminal record of any major kind they are deported.

Rioting and looting.

Setting your own house on fire to collect insurance money.

- Ineligibility for insurance money
- Fines for insurance fraud
- Fines/imprisonment for arson, if it burns or is likely to burn neighboring or public property

- Imprisonment for homicide, unless you made sure the home was empty
- Fines/imprisonment for abusing emergency services if you didn't want the fire put out but failed to notify the fire brigade in advance.
