It looks like a patriotic monument. If I were to speculate, relating to the communist revolution that created the current regime perhaps?

Factbooks and dispatches (which are works in progress) are the primary source of information for my nation. I try to have my stats match my idea of my nation but I think policies are the stat I can control the most.

I don't dislike anyone here. Agree or disagree, we're all compadres. :-)

Well, it must always be noted when the banner in question is one of the pre-provided banners!

I honestly wonder if more people in F7 these days have custom banners as their primary rather than the other way around!

But moving on from that, the banner gives off the interpretation that Romilija is either a country driven by it's mining industry, or that it's famous for some sort of giant mining project or other underground project which has involved mining out what might as well be an entire cave itself...

And there's my oh so intellectual interpretation on the matter, you're welcome 😊

Okay then, here's another pre-provided banner!

And as this one always seems to be interpreted as, it simply shows that the nation in question might have some sort of venetian-styled city or town in their midst, or that just in general the infrastructure and architecture of the nation is both historically inclined, and eye-catchingly majestic, like the old towns of many cities within Western and Southern Europe!
