In The Woods... - "HEart of Ages"

By the way, for anyone who cares, In The Woods... announced that they are getting back together soon after over a decade. If this means a new album, I will be very excited.

*insert obligatory LOL 10 YEARS TOO LATE*

Lol, nah, I'll give them a try.

~~That's neat how it samples each song. There should be a channel that does that for all metal albums. Would help me decide what to listen to better.~~

Nevermind. Did you edit the video or something? Note that their other two albums sound very different from Heart of Ages, completely dropping any trace of black metal.

I chose the longest Heart of the Ages. I assumed that would have been the actual version.

It bewilders me how despite how I don't really like punk my favourite band is a melodic punk band

I actually do like a lot of punk, but it's sort of similar for me. Metal is easily favorite genre yet one of my very favorite bands is Bad Religion.

Metal is my favourite genre too but somehow... melodic punk Billy Talent steals my heart....
Although I do consider Billy Talent to be the melodic black of punk.

Because Billy Talent's atmosphere is so dark it may as well be black.

Exhibit A:

Exhibit B:

It is not only dark, but is also melodic as hell.

Billy Talent - Red Flag

Really, it sounds like meloblack gone melopunk.

I have spent months attempting to find a band comparable to Billy Talent, but there does not seem to be such a thing.

Billy Talent - "River Below"

I don't hear it. The lyrics are rather depressing, but the sound of the music isn't very dark. I like it though.

Billy Talent - "Nothing To Lose"

I wasn't convinced at first. Thought it sounded like a lesser Green Day. But this song is growing on me...some really powerful emotions in this song especially at the end.

It is certainly one-of-a-kind among punk. I have yet to find anything similar. *cries*
