They were occupied by Bigtopia somewhat recently, but, under the leadership of their king who looks suspiciously like Kim Il-Sung, they managed to expel the Bigtopians and rebuild their city-state without any foreign assistance.

Their army is two million men strong, but it doesn't look to be very advanced. Somewhat like RL North Korea, though iirc the DPRK armed forces is larger.

AN: The Confederate American Free States is a sovereign state, presumably located in the Northern American Continent but maybe not, that holds around 1.4 billion people and follows the principles of Libertarian socialism and White nationalism under a Direct Democratic Confederal system.

The self-described history of their enormous space-faring nation is a spiral of greatness, decadence and resurgence in which technology and the integration of all into a network...or hive mind...was necessary for prosperity to continue. Yknow, like in Isaac Asimov's Foundation series.

From their leaders' factbook, I can assume that Occitania follows a succession law loosely similar to Absolute Primogeniture, or else the Crown Princess' correct title would be 'Heir Presumptive'.

The Hebreian society was primarily influenced by three 'Hearths' that focused on different parts of society. It was illegal for two members of the same hearth to marry, though movement between hearths was certainly possible.

Their reigning leader has no children because he -and his wife- do not wish to have any. Whether this will mean a succession crisis after his death is not exactly clear because I have no way of knowing what their succession laws are.

The names Coryan and Coryana derive themselves from an ancient Coryan word meaning "hope" — a fitting name for an utopian society.

AN: The end of the Era of Hylia brought forth an increase in monster activity in the south of the Wild Fields, which itself forced the Hylians to migrate to the lands of the Rito. The symbiotic Rito-Hylian culture, created out of this migration, marks the transition into the Sky Era.

They have a lot of great flags they aren't using (except in their factbook).

Also, King Johann Sigismund III reformed the nation of Teutonia from an absolute to a constitutional monarchy.

Fableverse is quite literally.... a verse. Or rather universe.

Instead of being one nation, the "player nation" is actually a collection of other fictional nations.

That their interstellar expansion makes little to no sense at all

In Character info

The Commonwealth of Atlantarctica is a continental-sized federation much like that of the UK. Founded in the early 2060s, Atlantarctica's economy has recently flourished due to its tourism industry and friendly relations towards its neighbors. Atlantarctica is against weapons of mass destruction and advocate for pacifism. Atlantarctica is classified as a Tier 6, Type 4.5 nation (ns stats bad). Flag design created by the Kingdom of Cantelo.

I mean waging a massive Galactic War requires ungodly amounts of resources. Mass expansion would be required to fuel the engines of war.

That and the fact that people join the Empire for tech, trade, and protection.
