Hmm, if you look at the 3 I posted anyway, the times between each song are quite spread apart...Though the first one is about a total song length from this band.

Hmm, RYM says this song is 26 minutes long. Apparently my Spotify version is different. Considering the next song I have on this album on Spotify doesn't exist according to RYM...

This whole song is practically a drum solo...

Last.fm lists Reverend Bizarre's They Used Dark Forces/Teutonic Witch as 0:30 long, while in reality it's 29:05.

Ajattara-Sortajan Kaipuu

Now to plow through some short black metal albums (again) for rating.

Hmm, the lowest rated album by this band is probably my favorite....

Ajattara-Naaras

They may not be the most exciting black metal, but they still have a good feel going for it compared to some black metal that just makes me snooze to death with it's straightforwardness. And the vocals being about as straightforward as you can get in black metal on top of it all.

I've only listened to The Mann-Machine, should listen to more sometime in the future.

Kreator - Future Ring

And then Kreator goes alternative.

Okay, this album gets a very...samey feeling quickly. At least the singer still interests me more than most black metal bands.

Now the albums kinda just going over my head...

6.5/10, because there were definitely songs I enjoy, and good quality to it. But overall I find it to start sounding too samey for me to care.

Kuudes Silmä - Outo Päivä

"Sixth Eye - Strange Day"

What is this, a punk song with keyboards as dominating instrument.
*checks genre* Right, this was post-punk anyways.
