Meadowfields is very, very well known, to my knowledge. Particularly around Forum 7, and I've had my own interactions with them. They are a splendid user, and are very kind from what I've seen.

Though they are new (as am I, and assuming they aren't a puppet), this user has already attained a decent foothold of recognition and awareness within F7, though they have certainly made mentionable ventures into other forums. Therefore, while there is still going to be some who don't recognize them, they certainly will be respected and understood as a regular on F7 and are therefore at least quite well known.

NSAR is just... famous around here. I don't think anyone in F7 doesn't know this user. In particular, they are probably very well known for their excellent responses, their humorous nation, and their general friendliness.

I've interacted with them before on many occasions. They seem to be pretty well known as a regular in F7, though I'm not sure about other forums.

Ninja'd

I honestly haven't seen them before, but that's probably because I don't go on the forums much.

Well considering by their founding date, they are practically unknown.

Judging by their post count they seem pretty unknown, though they could become more famous in the future.
