I mean not to play devil's advocate but reducing a planet to pebbles would make all of the resources more or less equally accessible, while glassing requires operating in a hot, highly radioactive environment.

Of course either way planetary devastation is a bit pooppy unless used as a plot device.

This nation is a consolidated lore repository for the greater canon in which the nations Arkeyana, Gladian Imperium, and Trifexian Network reside in, without creating far too many puppets.

Nothing lorewise yet, please bear with me. Call me Ark, Arki, or Arkey, I'm willing to answer any questions on how my nation works.

As a somewhat-related sidenote, something I never see talked about is the potential of chemical or biological weapons in PMT+ warfare tbh. Sure, explosions are edgy, but a biologically engineered superbug/virus is even scarier imo. Even if one argues "well, what if the disease escapes??", well, what if the big edgy superweapon deathstar gets captured by a group of plucky teens with plot armor? Both would suck.

(If any of you make COVID jokes, I will send you to NSG/A one-liner II thread)

Yeah, I don't really imagine that as much with Wormfodder, but I fucking love Vilkanias.

I wish Vilkanias was a NationState I didn't have to loathe, because as you mentioned the concept is... Funky, to say the least... Unfortunately, that's not the case...

His effort on F7 is... Lacking, to say the least. His one-line posts and lack of any meaningful contribution is insulting to me... Personally so, sometimes (Like the "You Rewrite AN" thread, for instance)... I have no idea of his etiquette on other forums on this site, as you mentioned he is apparently pretty good in dedicated RP's, though I haven't actually seen anything like that yet, but on F7...

Let's just say many of us on F7 are adverse to him for a reason.

I just see one-liners and infinite napalm being dumped everywhere for absolute and total domination with no regard to anything in general, having their way in playing as an independent despite picking a side "because [s/he] can."

No wonder Gonszwana takes potshots at him every chance he gets. Seriously, he didn't like that Vilkanias was refueling his planes, called it godmodding, and then the next rp he apped in, he said "Aight, hopefully, we don't get some wack-o godmodders with seals this time around.", and also told the OP after it "tbh you should have just denied their application since I could tell they were the type to godmod since their nation is just a shitpost per the fact books." He might not like him, but being a dick to him at every corner is uncalled for. From my interactions, he's a genuinely nice guy OOCly, and his "shitpost nation" is actually fun due to being played completely straight. He's the epitome of the person who's just here to have fun, not jack himself off with power, and I could use more people like him. It sickens me to see Gonszwana being such a goddamn OOC dick to him every chance he gets.

All he did was continue a sustained napalming campaign. Planes can refuel and rearm between airstrikes/bombing runs.

^ And yes, let's go back to cliches again.

For me, ahh... got one. And having not aimed at Wormfodder in any way,

The concept is not a bad thing, and like Wormfodder up there, it can be pulled

Yea, I don't get the whole "its cursed if it looks weird to me" thing. I've seen cursed tanks, which are in fact cursed (holy hell sprocket), but then there's the "look at my cursed aircraft hahaha" images that don't seem cursed, just stupid, given it's usually a backwards spitfire or something.

For NS, luckily, I haven't encountered the low effort "cursed" posts. Yet. So I fear.

Well, I personally have some problems with writing due to me having to weigh leaving things mysterious and giving some more information. I at least managed so far to hide some a bit more unsettling and hinting things among my factbooks that noone seems to have noticed yet, so I'm proud of that at least. Think I can do more by writing or creating some stuff from an in character perspective, although I'm doing some internal debate of if I should do it via text and RPG maker games or just RPG maker games. Gotta write more and finish my todolist tho

Yeah, your stuff is good, no doubt about that one. ♥ 🤔

If you wanna do it visually or via a game, I would say go for it. Just look out for how moddable the game is, because I often come across dead-ends because I realised "Ohh crap, the game is not that moddable" and it doesn't have much of a weight as to what I had in mind.
