Anyways since it's Thursday that means it's time for the weekly cliché:
People not knowing that the forum reindexes so they make a thread in Technical about their missing posts.

Yeah, It (Sometimes) clouds technical.
Very unfortunate, but I can understand the confusion.

Credit where credit is due, at least it is much, much better than the bravados that barked and yelled at obvious DOS/adspammers and then flooded the entire Moderation subforum with "AAA HELP SPAM" instead of using the designated Megathread.

Sometimes I wonder what makes people lose their minds when some DOS troll comes in and starts spamming the forum.

They're kids, probably. Either that or someone who was involved in the situation that made the DOS troll snap. I was there when Nekostan went insane and started forum spamming as I was in the thread about Japan's war crimes.

I mean Nekostan themselves was just a puppet of the user Katzenstaat, who got DOS back in 2018.

They were funnier when they were spamming as Katzenstaat tho because they'd often spam links to their pathetic anti-NS mod forum where they acted like their 'raids' were weakening the mods' resolve and soon the entire moderation staff of this site would resign en masse and their corrupt rule over the userbase would finally end.

Also to anyone who was around back then: RACIST MOD KYRUSIA USES THE N-WORD!!!

I know this cliché has been talked about to near death, but the sheer amount of low-effort war RPs is really...

I only discovered it for myself after looking at International Incidents.

I will never understand their fondness for mashing large numbers of troops together, but to each their own. I mean, to be fair my own RPs have been a tea party, birthday party, New Year's party and whatever direction Feyrisshire is taking our war.

One of these things is not like the other~!

A war with Feyrisshire? Oh my! Is 'good luck' the right thing to say? Though if your RP is narrative, maybe victory isn't the point...

By the way, in the Adjective thread you called Francine "astray," and, well, I think that probably is about the kindest word someone can pick to describe her...

Francine's pretty unique among my roleplaying characters. I don't have another character whose beliefs and attitudes I find quite as abhorrent as hers!* If it's alright to pull back the curtain a little, part of why Classroom 3-B is a school revolution is because I wanted to explore characters with drastically conflicting values and views, and I figured that if the characters were youths, I'd be better able to sympathize with the characters and stomach points of view and personalities I consider, well, not moral at all. That's mostly just been relevant with Francine, whose premise has inevitably led her to become rather extreme. ^~^;

*I guess there's also Sir Staley in The English White Elephant Company, but "old fat white European colonizer in the 1600s" is easier to distance myself from

I was involved in it (as NTN FSS, obv on the CHALICE side), and, let's be real, nobody over here on the CHALICE side was planning to be really serious with it in the first place. We were all in it for shits and giggles, so... yeah, you can probably tell that at least 5 of us had at least a giggle or two out of this.

Yesn't signature.

The consequences of the creation of NSG have been disastrous for NS as a whole. NSG Delenda Est.

The fact that there's some kind of dumb spam raid every week is a cliché now. As is hundreds of people reporting the same person in moderation.

I feel at some point the mods are gonna have to do more than just repeatedly tell users to 'Stop replying to spam' or 'Stop quoting spam posts'. Obviously not anything crazy like immediate one-month ban, but maybe start bringing out the cautionary red text (the normal text that's red, not the warn code) telling
