Wow, this songs pretty awesome and there's not even much to it. Not much like their other stuff, either, but it's actually a good different compared to their newer stuff which is just kinda meh.

And not listening to anything specific at the moment. Just going through stuff I remember deeming as boring quickly.

Iron Maiden - Caught Somewhere in Time

One of my very favorite songs from them.

Julianna Barwick-Keep Up the Good Work

I can enjoy this kind of stuff in a soundtrack here and there, but a whole album of it?...It's very peaceful and nice but I'm not particularly a fan of that sound for the entire duration of an album...And pretty much in every single one of her albums at that.

Jonsi - Sticks and Stones

A really great one to relive HTTYD.

Represented permanently at the World Assembly by Benjamin Olafsen, and on an ad-hoc basis by Alethea Norrland and rarely Gaia Pao and Gabriel Dzichpol.

OOClly retired from the GA/SC for something called 'real life'.

Jonsi is great. So is the band he fronts (Sigur Ros). Some of my favorites, easily.

Neurosis-Through Silver In Blood

I remember initially listening to this, going "Meh, can't get into the vocals right now", decided to give them more of a real chance after I got more into that vocal style, and went "The hell was I thinking ditching this? This is great".
