Fuck Buttons-The Lisbon Maru

One of my favorites by them. And this song is actually on a video game so I can play a song on repeat that I actually enjoy.

In fact this song is making me want to play the game.

On rare occasions I like to listen to some older 90's rap. I'm fairly partial to some Tupac, Dr. Dre, and some old Snoop Dogg. Although it never was, and never will be my preferred music genre.

Depends. There are a few exceptions. I think Death Grips is pretty good.

If we want to just go with hip-hop the instrumental hip-hop I heard sounded pretty good but there's still the rare occasion I like hip-hop with singing, too. But it isn't a realm of music I've particularly explored much yet because I have had other priorities with music right now.

The pinnacle of technical death metal.

There's this band Gojira I know a little that is considered technical death metal and they are highly praised. I listened to it a bit and I couldn't get into the vocals right now so I decided to push it back for later. I do remember the first song I heard by them liking it, though.

They're also progressive metal and groove metal, so probably specific albums fit into the technical death metal realm.

....Or a bunch of albums mix all 3.

Pink Floyd-Cluster One

It sounds more like progressive death than technical.

I stand by what I said about this being the pinnacle of technical death metal.
