A hostile nation invading after the civil war settles.

The nation they chose to invade was Russia.

It's November.

Russia having an incompetent and unorganized government, which significantly hinders their organization and morale despite their natural advantage.

Yeah, but now the Chinese are on Russia's side, so the invaders had better be on the side of the UN.

Fortunately, France, the UK, and the US all support the invaders by saying it's a democratic coup. Russia and China attempt to veto but their delegations are forcibly dragged out of the headquarters. A full-scale invasion is called out which leads to victory.

After winning the invasion, NATO commits to an occupation of Russia, which ends up as a massive, grinding, expensive slog ending in massive unrest and economic collapse in the West. China takes over as global superpower.
