From what I got out of the Dragonforce song I listened to (Don't remember which), they came off as show offish and trying too hard to be cool and technical. It just irritated me instead. Didn't help the vocalist got on my nerves.

99% chance it was Through the Fire and Flames.

Dream Theater - A Nightmare to Remember

Probably. I watched the video for whatever it was at the same time, which didn't help the show offish aspect at all.

"Oh, look how cool we are! Up close shot of us strumming the guitars fast! Yeah!"

Tangerine Dream, Woody Jackson, The Alchemist, & Oh No-The Agency Heist

Parts of this soundtrack makes me think of the Sim City 4 soundtrack for some reason. Closest comparison I can give it, anyway.

Dream Theater - A Rite of Passage

The second shortest and second weakest track on the album... correlation perhaps?

Brian Tyler-Far Cry 3 (Far Cry 3 Soundtrack)

People complained about this electronic-oriented soundtrack (Because electronics are scary okay?), but I honestly think it works surprisingly well for a video game where you're wandering in the jungle like some idiot being mauled by jaguars and shooting at psycho's.

Ah, debates against motorists who don't seem to like bikes on the roads, so fun.

Brian Tyler-Rook Island

Dubstep soundtrack song!

Surprisingly works really well. And calling it Dubstep is probably stupid, because calling stuff that just because it's electronic is dumb and something I get on peoples case for all the time.
