Burrito Chimichanga creates some additional burrito islands and burrito reefs within the Pacific Ocean. These burrito reefs are like coral reefs but they have the details of a burrito. Tortillas form as the sand of the reef. Meat chunks of various colors form as coral. And many other things like tomatoes, onions, bell peppers, chili sauce, cheese all form as plants that can absorb sunlight to do PHOTOSYNTHESIS.

And yes, the burrito rain continues across the globe for 3 more weeks. Antarctica is now filled to the brim with Burrito Mountains. The Club Penguin Republic uses these burrito mountains as meeting and feeding centers.

After the Mongol empire falls, Mongolia, reduced to their current borders, switches their goals to unite all Mongols under foreign borders, they first march into Tannu Tuva, Altai, and Buryatia (including Zabaykalsky Krai), + they occupy lands in Eastern Irkutsk, around the Ust-Orda Buryat region

The penguins turned their burritos (which they call cylinder edible thing with a wrapper wrapping some stuff in it) into an island with the help of the one and only The Icy Penguin (it changed its name). They again vibe in the icy wasteland of New South Georgia Island. Oh and also they might've crushed the people in the process

Master Man arrives to try and stop the spread of the AMOGUS virus but it proves to no avail. The powers the virus has feels...similar.

Could it be the essence of Supreme Man merged with something sussy and became this virus?

Master Man is infected and becomes a leader of the AMOGUS infection.

Master Man, in a rageful state because of the Amongus virus, is pinned down by Giselle (she went back to Earth to help stop the virus) and Burrito Chimichanga. He is given an antidote to cure him and it works.

Uno Reverse Savior is also cured by Giselle and Burrito Chimichanga.
