I mean, we can actually create a mathematical definition for evolution in terms of the evolutionary algorithm and then write code to deal with abstract instances of evolution, which basically equates to mathematical proof that evolution works. All that remains is to show that biological systems replicate in such a way as to satisfy the minimal criteria required for evolution to apply to them, something which has already been adequately shown time and again. At this point, we've pretty much proven that not only can evolution happen, it pretty much must happen since it's basically impossible to prevent it from happening.

This Will Destroy You-Black Dunes.

I was thinking this album sounded more like drone then ambient post rock, so I looked it up, and sure enough, it says it's drone. Of course, Wikipedia isn't a 100% reliable source, but it's the closest I got for the gazillion different genre's.

Melvins - Zodiac

In other words — and this is the rock solid principle on which the whole of the Corporation's Galaxy-wide success is founded — their fundamental design flaws are completely hidden by their superficial design flaws.
