Man lies awake at night, writhing in sweat-soaked sheets, while strange desires intrude upon his waking thoughts. He wishes, with every fiber of his being, to drink the sewage which killed his coworker.

The Man finally gives in and runs after the sewer, fills a pint with the sewage and drinks it all in one sip.

The Man wakes up and discovers that this was just a hallucination dream from having ingested the waste from the sewer. His body is still shaking, his mouth tastes and smells awful, but he's more concerned with the fact that his skin is slightly green. He realizes that he had pissed and defecated in his pants and when he was hallucinating, when he looks to the side he also sees that he has bled from his ears, he is desperate, but he does not regret having drunk the sewage.
