Their nation had a history of strong Neo Nazi dissidence which causes a knee-jerk reaction to even the slightest sign of pro Nazi sentiment, which might explain what seems to be AP's fervent anti-nazism (not that that's a bad thing). Also on a meta level, they're the oldest Nation I've ever seen on these forums.

Partially inspired by the Third Odyssey mod for EU4, this nation is essentially a Byzantine successor state in South America that has fused together Ancient Greek Religion with Greek Orthodox Christianity. It mixes the aesthetic of Byzantium and Ancient Greece, with very open and liberal social values but with an Imperial Monarchy. NS stats are referenced but are not strictly followed to a T.

They are on the continent of Coius on the planet Kylaris, bordered by Zorasan, Xiaodong, and Yi. Despite having rough terrain, ancient trade routes passed through the area. It used to be part of Xiaodong until it gained independence in 1954.

Today I learned that people from the Hatsunian mainland often call this country 'The Land of the First Sound' because of its etymology

Two small islands somewhere deep in the northern Pacific, they want to move what they think as Los Angeles and a few nearby islands far away from the West Coast to get away from climate change, renamed it and have it rebuilt into a sci-fi inspiration of Neo Angeles. They have mega-corporations scattered around, keeping their fashion trends high as is, making a bunch of sci-fi movies about the city itself and they even have their own space program.

That is how I describe the Holdac islands today. 🤖

A Pan-Asian survivalist nation who doesn't need international help when disaster strikes, and is only one nation away before total reunification of the continent.

The country is small, but contains half of the population of California. It leans towards anarchism, and is rebelling against the People's Republic of Dàguó which surrounds the country. Temperatures are high due to the urban heat island effect, and the shorelines are receding. Military units scout the surrounding areas for potentially useful resources and engage in urban warfare.

Their capital, Miraito, is located near Mt. Saki, the tallest mountain in Hatsunia. It has a population of near 10 million concentrated in 2393 square kilometers (which makes it relatively small, especially for an East Asian capital)

Nanna-Suen Disc is the name of an interstellar civilization that largely inhabits a sole Alderson disc, whose original constructors are long gone. I do have to question how they're an "interstellar" civilization though, if that disc is all they inhabit.
