This is pretty sweet and it's way different then the others. It's much more ambient then most of this soundtrack (Though the soundtrack is quite a bit focused on repetitiveness. As in, a similar sound goes on for 6 minutes in the songs. Kinda reminds me of the Sim City 4 soundtrack in that regard. Dunno why this kind of repetitiveness doesn't ALWAYS bother me but pop music repetitive does), but wow, it's really nice.

Can't say I'm much of a fan of this album so far, here's hoping that it saves itself before the end.
