Lupe Fiasco - Put You On Game

The eerie, dark instrumental with demonic voices in the background. The whole album has a (intentionally) dark theme to it. And the 'character' that's being represented in the song ("The Game") is supposed to epitomize all things that are evil.

Sludge metal, post-metal, progressive metal, AND doom metal?

So far all I'm really hearing is sludge and MAYBE some doom. Maybe a tad bit of progressive metal and post metal I guess.

Isis-The Other

Not that I'm a genre expert.

The Other sounds a little more post-metal-ish, so I'll give their genre labels a fair chance...

I'd probably still just call this sludge metal though. Pickiness with genres is silly.

Listened through them just like last week. One of my favorite metal bands now. And to think I pushed them off because of the vocals...

This. Don't judge a book by its cover; despite the song's title it's actually a decent hardstyle song if that's your thing.
