There seems to be people who go in waves of being active in this thread, and then leave again for a while.

And it's usually quiet this time of night (Where I am), anyway.

Bjork-Human Behavior

On to the 5th Bjork album for today. Her first one (Besides the one when she was 12), in 1993. Lots of rating...

The only Bjork album I've rated below a 8 was her newest...She's definitely consistently good, but for some reason half of the new album kinda bores me, but the other half is really good, so even at her "weakest", there's still tracks I love.

Well of course. From what I've seen/known, most of NSers are from US or Canada. Of course there's quite a lot from Europe and other countries but this time is rather quiet anyways. Americans sleep, Europeans work.

I've been finding some decent, 'off the grid' female rappers lately.

Honey Cocaine - Love Coca \(Love Sosa\)

Good, but that freaking hook is horrid...

EDIT: Well, can't really say 'off the grid', since she's got 4 million views on this...

Three days grace - Chalk Outline

Hello, I haven't been active in a long while, looking to come back and see how things are with the community.

Music: Rap (mostly trap), Metal/Rock

Previously active around 2014-2016

The New Age Empire is a revival of The Helghast Empire, in an alternative universe where Mael Radec survived the destruction of Helghan.

Yes, you read that title right.

Lil Herb - Versace \(Remix\)

Screw Migos (original artist of this song), this remix freaking murdered their version.
