I had this dilemma earlier.

It was mainly a conflict of whether I should rate based on what was actually better vs. what I actually enjoy listening to. For example, I gave Lorde's Pure Heroine a 7.4, but Justin Bieber's Journals a 7.6... Feeling greatly disturbed by this, I decided to rate based on enjoyability, and I enjoy Journals more than Pure Heroine (good god what's happened to me...) even though I think Pure Heroine was better musically ...
And it still doesn't make sense, but eh.

Future - Honest

Another confusing dilemma; how you can listen to and enjoy several songs from an artist you can't stand...

That's kind of how I was with Fever Ray and Iamamiwhoami. I like Fever Ray's album more in the sense that I'm more likely to listen to it and it is more musically interesting, but I quite liked Iamamiwhoami I, too, so it was confusing...But it felt weird having it more liked than the album I generally find myself listening to, so I just rated them both the same.

Same here, I ended up having 7 albums I need to re-listen to, and I want to get at least one out of the way before I go to bed. But I rated 66, so only 7 out of 73 is pretty damn good I'd say. ☐

I'm rating slowly.

I almost have my top 10 pop albums done now, though!

Efterklang-Told to be Fine

Partly why I'm listening to these, actually. Trying to figure out which I'd prefer to put on the list.

Oh, if I were doing top lists (which I do want to do at some point), It would take me forever. ☐

10 POP albums? Nice.

So far I have 7 Top Favorite Pop Albums. I have about 2 in mind to add but finalizing my opinion of where to put them on the list.

The top 25 Pop songs is at...erm...32. I need to do some adjustments to that one.

Luveria, I'm pretty sure I recommended a hip hop album to you called Trials & Tribulations with that list I gave you a while back... Ignore it (or listen to it if you want, but it's pretty bad). Why I thought it was a good album is beyond me...and I probably recommended some other dumb ones.

You mind sharing some of the artists on those lists? With the exception of The Knife, I don't really know any pop outside of the mainstream crap.
