It's not really the greatest song ever, but the lyrics are fitting for it.

portal lost a lot of its charm for me when people started spewing one liners ripped from it. kinda like monty python.

it also wasn't really all that interesting a game. fun for a few hours but it got dull after a bit. thankfully it was appropriately short.

the humour was forced, awkward and just bad in the sequel though.

THIS CIIIIIIITY NEEEEEDS YOOOOOOOU NOOOOOOOOOW

I loved the 2nd game. The first one I really enjoyed too, but it was more of an introduction into the concept. The 2nd one just expanded on it. I don't really see how the humor was forced, awkward, and just bad in the sequel, but to each their own I guess. I thought the humor was great in the 2nd one and I thought the game was great.

One thing I like about Valve is that they tend to make their games work fairly well before releasing them. Sure, they still have bugs here and there, but any game would. But their games work way better then almost any other game I've played. At least, I find less bugs.

I've seen that before. I also made my brother into a big OFWGKTA fan, even though I'm not that into them.

And now I'm listening to that.

I do believe they're horrible. ☐
Just plain odd, really.

Shad :)

Yeah, I don't like 'em, but I knew about them and somehow got my brother to be really big on them.

Interesting tweaked vocals. Sounds kinda vocaloid-ish, but I don't really know.

Queen- '39

The guitar intro is similar to the one in Stairway to Heaven. Good song, anyway.
