The Police - The Other Way of Stopping

Genre: New wave, reggae rock, post-punk

Pretty ordinary album other than a few cool songs.

I can tell. I've been listening to The Beatles a lot again, but I'm trying to have some more variety again (even though there's a lot of variety in their catalogue).

I find radios that play only modern pop and say "today's best variety" pathetic.

I like K-pop, really. It helps me and some million fans around the globe get excited and have stress relieved.

You probably know that's not my kind of thing, but I respect that. I'm just saying if as a radio you're going to play the same kind of music all the time, don't call yourself "today's best variety."

Radiohead - Street Spirit (Fade Out)

Genre: Alternative rock

That was a pretty awesome album overall.

Aren't they the ones who released a song called, "Video Killed The Radio Star"?
